UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Sean Ray Wilson,

Plaintiff

v.

Maggqysay, Jackson, Hart, Ferry, Sheriff Joe
Lombardo,

Defendants

Case No. 2:20-cv-0003-JAD-EJY

Order Adopting Report and Recommendation to Dismiss Eighth Amendment Claim

[ECF No. 3]

On March 5, 2020, the magistrate judge screened Sean Ray Wilson's complaint. In that screening order, she recommends that Wilson's Eighth Amendment Claim for use of excessive force at the time of his arrest be dismissed with prejudice for failure to state a claim and because no amendment will cure its deficiency.¹ The deadline for objections to that recommendation passed without objection or any request to extend the deadline to file one. "[N]o review is required of a magistrate judge's report and recommendation unless objections are filed."² Accordingly, with good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the magistrate judge's report and recommendation [ECF No. 3] is ADOPTED; Plaintiff's Eighth Amendment Claim for use of excessive force at the time of his arrest is DISMISSED with prejudice.

Dated: March 24, 2020

U.S. District Judge Jennifer A. Dorsey
